Offer on Leases of Ten Years from the first of April, 1815, the following

PROPERTY IN PITTSBURGH.

No. 1. THE Ferry Lot on the corner of Wood, Water, and Front streets. It contains 60 feet on Water street, on which are a valuable two story brick house and a three story frame one, weather-boarded and painted, and is a capital stand for a Store. The Ferry is allowed to be the best one on the Monongahela, and the situation of the property generally admirably calculated for the river trade, as it affords the easiest and most convenient communication; its length is 160 feet on Wood street, and is directly opposite Mr. T. Cromwell's warehouse, a number of shops are erected thereon, and on Front street it contains 60 feet, the corner occupied by Mr. Samuel Smith as a store, and is a well known stand. The real advantages of the Ferry are so well known as to need no comment. It is occupied by Mr. W. Graham.

2. The House and Lot on Water and Front street, with a front of 60 feet on each, by 160 feet deep, a few doors above Wood street, now occupied by Mr. Le Lacheur.

3. A Lot on Penn street, next to the valuable improvements of Mr. Abner Barker. It borders on the Allegheny river, and would be valuable for a board-yard, as it is 60 feet front by more than 400 deep.

As several applications have already been made to the subscribers for this property, they now give public notice that any person disposed to lease may know their terms by applying to either of them residing in Yorktown Penn.

From Lewis and Clark's Travels up the Missouri.

DESCRIPTION OF NATURAL WALLS.

At nine miles we came to a high wall of black rock, rising from the water's edge on the south, above the cliffs of the river. This continued about a quarter of a mile, and was succeeded by a high open plain, till 3 miles further a second wall 200 feet high rose on the same side. Three miles further a wall of the same kind about 200 feet high and 12 in thickness, appeared to the North. These hills and river cliffs exhibit a most extraordinary and romantic appearance. They rise in most places nearly perpendicular from the water, to the height of between 2 and 300 feet, and are formed of very white sandstone, so soft as to yield readily to the impression of water, in the upper part of which lie embedded 2 or 3 thin horrizontal stratas of white freestone insensible to the rain, and on the top is a dark rich lome, which forms a gradually ascending plain, from a mile to a mile and a half in extent, when the hills again rise abruptly to the height of about 300 feet more. In trickling down the cliffs, the water has worn the soft sandstone into a thousand grotesque figures, among which with a little fancy, may be discerned elegant ranges of freestone buildings, with columns variously sculptured, and supporting long and elegant galleries, while the parapets are adorned with statuary. On a nearer approach they represent every form of elegant ruin—columns, some with pedestals and capitals entire, others mutilated and prostrate, and some rising pyramidally over each other till they terminate in a sharp point. These are varied by niches, alcoves, and the customary appearances of desolated magnificence—the illusion is increased by the number of Martins, who have built their globular nests in the niches and hover over these columns; as in our country they are accustomed to frequent large stone structures. As we advance there seems no end to the visionary enchantment which surrounds us. In the midst of this fantastic scenery are vast ranges of walls, which seem the production of art, so regular is the workmanship, they rise perpendicularly from the river, sometimes to the height of 100 feet, varying in thickness from 1 to 12 feet, being equally as broad at the top as below. The stones of which they are formed are black, thick and durable, and are composed of a large portion of Earth, intermixed and cemented with a small quantity of sand, and a considerable proportion of talk or quartz. These stones are almost invariably regular parallelides of unequal sizes in the wall, but equally deep, and laid regularly in ranges over each other like bricks, each breaking and covering the interstice of the two on which it rests but tho' the perpendicular interstice be destroyed the horrizontal one extends entirely thro' the whole work. The stones too are proportioned to the thickness of the wall in which they are employed, being largest in the thickest wall. The thinner walls are composed of a single depth of the paralleliped, while the thicker ones consist of two or more depths. These walls pass the river at several places, rising from the water's edge much above the sandstone bluffs which they seem to penetrate; thence they cross, in a straight line on either side of the river, the plains over which they tower to the height of from 20 to 70 feet, until they lower themselves in the second range of hills; sometimes they run parallel in several ranges near to each other; sometimes intersect each other at right angles, and have the appearance of walls of ancient houses or gardens.

"Albany, Monday morning, 8 o'clock, May 22.

"Gen. Wilkinson arrived in town last evening, on his way to Baltimore, where he means to fix his residence. I keep my letter open for any news which may arrive this evening.

"By a letter from Montreal, received by this day's mail, the British state their loss in the landing at Oswego at 80 in killed and wounded; that they took a considerable quantity of military and naval stores and provisions. It also states the arrival of 2000 troops at Quebec."

LATEST FROM COM. LEWIS.

A gentleman, passenger in this morning's New York stage, informs that just as he was leaving N. Y. his partner informed him that he had read a letter from up the Sound, which stated that Com. Lewis had been 3 hours engaged with the British frigate Maidstone, that she appeared to be very much injured—that a dead calm prevailed, and at the moment of writing the Com. was ranging up his squadron to renew the attack. The squadron consists of 14 gun boats and a new brig.

FROM CANADA.

QUEBEC, MAY 10.

We learn with pleasure that the grand jury have lately visited the public goal, and particularly questioned the prisoners of war, as well as other prisoners, as to the treatment they received, and whether they had any complaint to make. All expressed their satisfaction by saying that they had every comfort their situation would admit of. This must silence all calumny in the States, against this government, respecting ill treatment of prisoners of war.

MAY 12.

We observe that both our friends and our foes have given themselves some trouble about alledged dissentions in this province, Those who know nothing of Canada but by the productions of the press may well imagine that there is some foundation for the assertion. Many of our public writers seem to have had their minds vitiated by reading American newspapers. We do not mean to allude to their politics, but to their manners.—Others may be said to have been "ill favoured" by nature, and more unfortunate in their education. We can, however, assure our friends that they have no occasion to be uneasy with regard to the people of this province. If the enemy think he can reap any advantage from our "dissentions" he had better come and try.

THE AUSTRIAN FORCE NOW IN FRANCE.

We have not seen in the American papers any particular account of the Austrian troops which entered France thro' Switzerland. A late London paper gives the following as a correct enumeration of that force.

Boston Gazette.

"The 1st light division, under field marshal Lieut Count Bubna; the 2d under Prince Maurice of Lichtenstein; the 1st army corps, of Gen. Count Colloredo Mannsfeldt; the 2d, of Gen. Prce. Louis of Lichtenstein; the 3d, of Count Giulay; the 4th, of the Crown Prince Wurtemburg; the 5th, of the Gen. for the cavalry Count Fremont: and the reserve corps, under the command of count Wissenwolf; together with one detachment of pioneers, another of pontooners, and a 3d, of sappers and miners.

"These 8 divisions are composed of 6 battalions of sharp shooters, 10 battalions of light infantry, 14 battalions of grenadiers and 34 regts. of infantry. The cavalry consists of 3 regts. of cuirassiers, 3 of light cavalry, 5 of dragoons, 1 of Hulans, and 3 Hussar regts."

SACKETT'S HARBOR BLOCKADED.

The Steam Boat, which arrived this morning, furnishes no intelligence from Sackett's Harbor of later date than the 20th inst.

On that day, the British fleet of 9 sail, under Com. Sir James L. Yeo, were lying at anchor, about 6 miles from the Harbor. Our fleet was not prepared to meet them. The frigate Superior was nearly finished; but the other new frigate was still on the stocks, and it was believed that she could not be ready to sail until some time in July. Of the guns for these two vessels, 25 only had reached the Harbor.

From the New London (Con.) Gazette, of May 25

Gen. Champion and Col. Staples, arrived here on Saturday last, by order of his Excellency Gov. Smith, to consult with Col. Kingsbury, commandant of the U. S. troops in this district, on the means of state defence. His Excellency, we understand, has engaged to furnish all the aid which Col. Kingsbury may find it necessary to call for. The Col. has also received orders from the secretary of war to call on the gov. for whatever number of the militia the pressure of the enemy may render necessary.

New York, May 29.

RESULT OF THE GUN BOAT ACTION.

To gratify the public anxiety to learn the result of the action between the British squadron off N. London and Com. Lewis's division of gun boats, on Wednesday last, the following is given, from a gentleman who arrived this morning in the stage, and who saw the engagement from a short distance of the combatants.

The British frigate Maidstone & sloop of war Sylph, lay off Goshen reef, about 3 miles from land. Com. Lewis, with his convoy, understood to amount to 53 sail, of which 13 were gun boats, were going from Saybrook to N. London, within the reef, when a British sloop tender, armed with a 12 pounder, came in among the fleet, and commenced firing upon some of the coasters. The fire was returned by capt. Howard, of the Juno, who spent all his ammunition upon her, and proceeded on. The gun boats, which were in the rear, coming up, the tender drew off, and the fire was opened by the frigate and sloop of war.

The sloop of war being armed with carronades only, soon drew off, out of reach of the long shot, and left the frigate, to maintain the contest, which was continued by com. L. until all his convoy were safe in port, without any damage but a few grape shot which struck a sloop the Lydia, capt. Freeman, and another sloop grounding a few minutes, & throwing overboard a few barrels of flour before she got off.

Com. L. bro't his division to anchor in a line across the river, without being pursued by the enemy, and having received but one shot in the hull of one of the ketches. The damage done the enemy could not be told; but the shot were seen to strike in every direction about them. The next morning the Maidstone was seen to have her fore-top-gallant-mast & fore-yard down.

On Thursday morning the gun boats got under way and proceeded in line of battle towards the enemy again. The frigate and sloop of war, hau'ed off by their kedges a mile or so; by which time a 74 appeared in sight coming round Race Point, and com. L. returned to the harbor,

At the commencing of the affair there was wind enough to work the ships and to cut off the fleet from N. L. which they declined, but lay broadside to and fired by divisions through the action.

The coast being cleared, between 20 and 30 sail of the packets and coasters continued their voyage to the eastward.

On Thursday evening, Com. Lewis got under way and came up the Sound, unmolested by the enemy, and yester day afternoon anchored off Norwalk Island, and will probably reach this city in the course of the day.

The British squadron, which now consisted of two 74's, two frigates, one sloop of war, and a gun-brig, followed on, and on Friday, at 9 o'clock in the morning, a frigate, with 11 barges in tow, was off Guilford, when the alarm was given, and the militia turned out and every preparation made to repel an invasion. In the afternoon, however, the enemy were seen standing back again to the eastward.

Not a man was killed or wounded either on board of our gun-boats or coasters.

Our informant is an intelligent citizen of N. London, and having been an eyewitness of the transaction, as well as of the progressive movements of the parties afterward, may be relied upon for the most accurate account we have yet received, or may expect until we have the statement of Com. Lewis, who, we this moment learn, has reached port and come to anchor off the battery.

May 31.—We learn that a letter has been received from the Hon. Mr. Bayard, one of our mission to Gottenburgh, stating, as his opinion, the restoration of the Bourbon family on the throne of France, and the settlement of our differences with England in the course of the ensuing summer.

ALBANY, May 28.

The enemy, we learn, were still off Sackett's Harbour, on Monday last, the 23d inst. The rigging to complete the frigate Superior has probably arrived there before this time. The new vessel will be launched in about ten days.

ST. LOUIS, May 21.

MORE MURDERS.

Captain David Musick, commanding the company of rangers raised in this county, arrived here last Tuesday from Fort Clark (Peoria) where he had been stationed. Captain Musick states, that a few days before he left that place, two of his company (Murray and Hooper) were shot and scalped by the Indians.—One of the men was killed within cannon shot of the fort, and the Indians were fired upon when in the act of scalping the poor fellow.

CHILLICOTHE, (O.) June 4.

DREADFUL TORNADO!!!

On the 20th ult. just before sun set, a tremendous tornado, accompanied with thunder, lightning and rain, passed thro' the western district of this county. Its aspect on approaching was appalling & terrible in the extreme. Like the fiery curling volumes of smoke which issue from the crater of a volcano, the clouds by a rapid vertical motion mounted aloft in the atmosphere, while they moved forward with prodigious rapidity. Its course was northerly and easterly, marking its destructive progress with awful desolations—upturning the loftiest as well as humblest trees of the forest, driving their torn branches and leaves to a league's distance or more, throwing down fences, covering the farms with dead timber carrying off the roofs of houses, and even raising some of them to their foundations. The track of this hurricane, taken in its greatest latitude, and particularly where it crossed the road from Chillicothe to Lebanon is about 2 miles wide; but the most remarkable part of the ruin may be estimated at 1 mile and 1-4 wide. Scarce one tree in a thousand is seen standing. About two thirds of the forest trees are thrown down to the earth in every direction, while the other third are broken off at the height of 10, 20 and 30 feet, leaving their riven, shivered and denudated stumps, the awfully impressive monuments of the power, which destroyed them. Thro' the good providence of him who rideth on the wings of the wind,' no human creature has been hurt, as far as yet known. It is a fact truly remarkable that the Concord meeting house & grove around it received no injury whatever, tho' situated in the very midst of the tempest's course, and though the foot steps of ruin were every where awfully visible around this favored spot. The oldest persons living in the neighborhood, say they have never before seen a storm so dreadfully alarming and ruinous.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1814.

To the great joy of the people of Erie, Col. Fenton with the militia marched from that place on the 2d inst. for Buffalo. The Commandant of that Corps is represented as unqualified and incompetent to perform the duties of the office to which Governor Snyder appointed him, and the men as insubordinate and riotous.

Arrived here on Wednesday morning last from Brownsville, the Steam Boat ENTERPRIZE, Capt. Gregg. Her destination the Falls of Ohio.

To the Inhabitants of Pittsburgh.

A late number of the "Emporium," a periodical work, published by Thomas Cooper, Esq. Professor of Chemistry at Dickinson College; contains a description of Bolton and Watts's method of "consuming the smoke of furnaces, &c. adapted to any boiler or copper already set up, at a very small expence, without requiring more coal than usual."

Satisfactory evidence of the utility and practicability of the plan having been given, a patent was obtained.——Mr. Cooper states, that "in Manchester the public complained of the inconvenience arising from the smoke," and that, "in August 1801, eleven persons were fined, one hundred pounds sterling each, for not consuming the smoke of their fires!!" See note at the end of the number for December 1813.

Although much of the prosperity of Pittsburgh is owing to its "Fires," it is not to be concealed, that the effects of those immense fires, have become subjects of complaint. That the evil (if it be an evil to be enveloped in smoke) is daily increasing, and that relief is now universally called for.

To such in our day and generation, as appear to have been raised in the nurture and admonition, of the Prince of the power of the Air, there may be consolation, from the hope, that initiated here in infernal habits, and familiarized to blazes, heat, smoke, soot and the blackness of darkness in this life, the transition to that which is to come, will be easy, and Hell thus stripped of half its terrors.

Were it rightful for an individual, so to use his own, as to injure the community; would it not be proper, and kind in those, who derive wealth and consequence from these "Fires," to inquire, whether the condition of their neighbours (who wish them well and rejoice in their prosperity) could not be rendered less uncomfortable, by the general and spontaneous adoption, of some approved plan, for the consumption of the smoke occasioned by these fires, thus precluding the necessity which it appears existed at Manchester, of having recourse to municipal regulations, or to courts of justice?

Would not immediate attention to this subject, tend to harmonize, conduce to the general welfare, and comfort of the city, and well comport with that divine precept, which instructs us, that "whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do you even so to them."

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

EXTRACTS.

When Solon was asked if he had given the Athenians the best civil institutions, he replied, that he had given to them the best they were able to bear. This answer points to a principle which lies at the foundation of political science; that the forms of civil government ought to be varied according to the manners and character of the people for whom they are designed, as well as according to all those exterior circumstances of climate, or geographical description, such as waters, mountains, plains, &c. which have any influence upon the occupation, habits, and spirit of the country. It results hence, that no single form of government is to be considered as absolutely, and universally best: but the perfection of any civil institution is wholly a relative idea to the state of the nation to which it is adapted. A wise policy must have relation to so many circumstances, both in the interior, and external state of the people to be regulated by it, that those forms which might be evidently best for one nation may be among the worst for another.

The Athenians were divided by Solon into four classes, according to their property; one object of which division was to limit the eligibility of citizens to offices which required information, or involved any important public trust; while the elective franchise was sacredly preserved to every citizen. It was a principle with Solon, that citizens, of the lowest grade in the republic, may, from public fame, or their own observation of the actions of their fellow-citizens, be able to chuse a magistrate, although they are wholly unqualified to discharge the functions of the magistracy. In consequence of this principle, he ordained that the public magistrates should be eligible out of the three former classes only; but judges in legal trial, an order equivalent to our juries, might be chosen out of the last of the four classes, comprehending that numerous body who were destitute of real property.

APPOINTMENT BY THE PRESIDENT.

ANDREW JACKSON, Esq. to be a Major General, vice W. H. HARRISON, Esq. resigned.

The Express Mail from the City of Washington on Saturday last, brought intelligence, that Bonaparte had re-entered Paris, and made prisoners of the Emperors of Russia and Austria, King of Prussia, and 25,000 men. This news it appears was contained in a letter from a gentleman in Paris to his son in Charleston, (S. C) dated April 8, 1814, and received by the brig James Monroe, arrived at Savannah, (Geo.) from L'Orient, in France, which place the Captain of the vessel states, he left on the 8th of April and which is nearly three hundred miles from Paris. It does not appear that this news was known at L'Orient, when the James Monroe left it.

In addition to the above, by Tuesday's Express, we received the following, said to be brought by the brig Spencer, arrived at the above port.

From the contradictory and confused manner in which these accounts are given to the public, we do not place the least confidence in them—and until further advices are received, a correct opinion cannot be formed of the great events that have lately taken place in France.

From the Charleston Gazette, of May 27.

The letter we published bears upon its front genuine marks of its authenticity. Be it a counterfit or not, the contents are substantially confirmed—the passengers in the southern stage confirm the contents in every particular. The Spencer sailed 5 days later than the James Monroe. The passengers confirm the success of Bonaparte, the advance of Augereau, and captivity of the allied sovereigns. We have it from the passengers who are men of truth. This statement will satisfy republicans, but we are desirous of satisfying federalists, & give them federal authority.

A federal house in this city yesterday received a letter from Savannah, which stated "that the passengers in the Spencer informed the writer that the allies entered Paris, etc. (as before published in our Gazette of yesterday) and that Bonaparte attacked them afterwards, and after a sharp conflict had taken the whole of those that entered Paris, prisoners, and was master of the capital."

This day's southern mail will remove all doubts if any yet remain. We confess we have none.

From the Charleston Gazette, of May 28.

We yesterday presented an extra to contradict the news of the day before.—Mr. Guyot the father of the young gentleman who received the letter in this place, we understand, is a respectable gentleman, and his had writing is identified. The letter has the post mark at Savannah, and the paper has no mark on it, which is invariably the case in French paper since the revolution. Mr Guyot says it is the hand writing of his father who is in Paris. With this statement we give it to our anxious readers who will attach what consequence to it they please.

IMPORTANT.

Extract of a letter, dated "Savannah, May 24.

The brig Spencer, Captain Waterman, has arrived, and totally contradicts the news of the successes of the Allied armies."

To the Editors of the National Intelligencer.

Charleston, May 24.

Gentlemen!

The southern mail has arrived & brings no confirmation of the news sent you in the extra yesterday.

Yours, &c.

FROM THE YEAR—A POEM.

BY W. L. PIERCE, Esq.

HAMILTON.

THERE was a time, an ever glorious time,
When men beheld our councils tower sublime!
When wisdom touch'd the lips of her fond son,
The world's great wonder, matchless HAMILTON.
His was the hero's hand, and statesman's head,
The field to rule, the cabinet to lead;
His was the mind, intuitively great,
To form and shape the credit of a state;
To teach the stream of eloquence to roll,
Rouse, serve, expand, and overwhelm the soul;
To save his country, and expound her laws,
And hear unmov'd the thunder of applause.
Yes, such was he, o'er whose untimely bier,
E'en strangers bent, and mingled sorrow's tear.
Ah! might we now that lofty treasure boast,
Our rights were safe, nor hope's best anchor lost.

AMES.

To memory's tear what name has higher claims
Than thine, illustrious, persuasive AMES?
How joy'd Columbia at thy bright career,
And saw the left, the centre of her sphere?
What tongue like thine, mellifluous streams distill'd,
Touch'd every soul, & trembling passion thrill'd!
"The thoughts that breathe, the words that burn," we find
In every effort of thy noble mind,
Impassion'd sage! oft did thy guardian care
Compel corruption freedom's rights to spare;
Oft thro' still senates have thy thunders roll'd,
Gave justice sweep, and bade fell faction—hold!
Rest, sainted sage! & still thro' cheerless night,
Pour from thy page a flood of guiding light.

ELLSWORTH.

Who feels not, in this dark and dismal day,
The want of learned ELLSWORTH's vigorous ray?
ELLSWORTH, whose bold, sublime and nervous mind,
Unravell'd art, and gave to sight the blind;
Guided by reason's strong, unyielding clue,
Through the dark labyrinth he fearless flew;
Like lightning, pierc'd the deep recess of wile,
Delusion stript, and made the desart smile;
Intrigue shrunk back, and fled his searching sight;
In vain she shrunk, he dragg'd her into light,
His mind, unmov'd by the soft syren's tale,
With forceful grasp asunder rent her veil.

GRISWOLD.

From Freedom's chaplet, every year, is lost
Some leaf of laurel, when she needs it most.
Why bend with woe yon sad and sorrowing crowd?
What means that train—those griefs so deep and loud!
Why yonder sod fresh broke, and why around
Glows the white marble o'er the recent mound?
Alas! My country, long thy genius there
Shall moisten GRISWOLD's grave with mournful tear:
His was the mind inflexible and just,
The watchful guardian of a people's trust;
His the clear head, the sound & honest heart,
Too nobly great to play a double part.
Well, said his friend, from GRISWOLD's sacred grave,
"A lamp undying shines our rights to save."

Such were the men who erst in happier days,
On Freedom's altar taught her fires to blaze;
Such were the men of great and noble soul,
Who spread Columbia's fame from pole to pole;
Unfurl'd her canvass, learnt her to explore
Each clime from Norway to the Ganges' shore;
With thunders cloth'd her flag, and bade it sweep
In union emblems o'er the billowy deep.

We mourn our fallen state, yet 'tis not strange,
When we reflect how great, how vast the change;
When we compare the past and present day,
What upstart men! alas! have held the sway.

CORRECT REPRESENTATION OF THE BATTLE ON LAKE ERIE, TWO DRAWINGS.

BY SULLY AND KEARNEY,

REPRESENTING the most important scenes in that glorious achievement, are now exhibiting at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts.

197 SCENE FIRST

Represents the position of the American and British fleets, at the interesting moment when Commodore Perry, finding the Lawrence rendered unmanageable, from her having received the whole fire of the enemy's fleet, is seen passing in a boat rowed by eight men, to go on board the Niagara.

198 SCENE SECOND

Represents the Lawrence out of the action—Perry forcing the British line, engaged with the Queen Charlotte and Detroit, two of the enemy's heaviest ships, both of which are in the act of striking, the rest having surrendered, except the Little Belt and Chippeway, which are seen making a vain attempt to escape.

Highly finished engravings in the like manner are to be executed from the above mentioned drawings by George Murray, Gideon Fairman and Cornelius Tiebout.

N. B. A subscription paper is left at the Academy.

Copy of a letter from Com. PERRY to the Publishers.

Newport, May 23, 1814

Gentlemen—I have examined two views of the action on Lake Erie, drawn by Mr. Sully and Mr. Kearney, from information given them by the commanding officers of the American vessels on Erie. I have no hesitation in pronouncing them a correct representation of the engagement at those particular moments.

Wishing that your pecuniary success may equal your exertions in obtaining correct information of that battle.

I am, gentlemen, your obedient servant,
O. H. PERRY.

75 Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, on the night of the 2d inst. from the widow Heron's, near Turtle creek, a Negro Man named JOSEPH. He is about 40 years old, carries his age well, and has a fine voice; about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, remarkably black, stout and well made, very down countenance, and rolls his eyes very much when looking at any person, and has a very bushy head of hair.—Had on when he left me a wool hat turned up in the rim—a drab coloured great coat, a pair of strong coarse shoes cut without any eyeseam. It is almost unnecessary to describe the cloaths he had on when he escaped, as he took with him a wallet which contained fine cloaths that he would probably wear.

The above Reward will be paid any person who will secure him and give information to me at Cazwell Court-House, North-Carolina, so that I can get him, or the reward and reasonable charges if sent home. It will be well for the citizens to keep a sharp look out for him, as he is a great rascal; and all persons are cautioned against harbouring him at their peril, as I will enforce the law against them to its full extent.

BOROUGH ORDINANCES.

BE it ordained by the Town Council of the Borough of Pittsburgh, that a fine of Two Dollars shall be imposed on any and every person, who shall, after the first day of June next either sell or buy any Fire Wood or Tanners, Bark, withing the limits of this Borough, without first having such Fire Wood or Tanners' Bark, properly Corded and Measured, by the Clerk of the Market, or his Deputy or Deputies—One half of which fines, shall go to the Informer, and the other half be paid into the Borough Treasury, for the use of the Borough.

And be it further ordained by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first day of June next, the Clerk of the Market is hereby empowered to appoint one or more Deputies, and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Market and his Deputy or Deputies, to measure all such Firewood or Tanners bark, as he or they or any of them may be required to do, and to give Certificates of the quantity thereof to the person or persons employing him or them, and for measuring and giving Certificate the Clerk of the Market or his Deputy or Deputies shall be entitled to Six Cents per Cord, one half to be paid by the Seller and the other half by the Buyer: But before the Clerk of the Market or his Deputy or Deputies shall enter upon the duties enjoined on him or them, by this Ordinance, he and they shall take an Oath or Affirmation, well, truly and impartially to execute and perform the said duties with fidelity according to the best of their knowledge and abilities.

Enacted into an Ordinance the 6th day of May 1814.

Attest—
LAZARUS STEWART, Town Clerk.

BE it ordained by the Town Council of the Borough of Pittsburgh that from and after the first day of June next, a fine of not less than Five nor more than Twenty Dollars, at the discretion of the Burgess, be imposed on any and every person or persons who shall in any wise interfere and prevent the Clerk of the Market from executing and performing the duties of Clerk of the Market in this Borough—Which fines shall be paid into the Borough Treasury for the use of the Borough.

Enacted into an Ordinance the 10th day of May 1814:

Attest—
LAZARUS STEWART,
Town Clerk.

DOMESTIC ROVING AND SPINNING MACHINE.

This very important and useful improvement.

FOR Roving and Spinning Cotton and Wool, has been secured to Oliver Barret, jun. by letters patent. As it is impossible to give an adequate idea of machinery by description, it may be sufficient to state that this machine is very simple in its construction and operation, and not more liable to be put out of repair than a common spinning wheel, and may be made and repaired by a good carpenter or cabinetmaker.

A machine of twelve spindles will occupy about the same room as a bed. On a machine of twelve spindles, one woman (with a child to splice the rolls) will spin as much in a day as 8 Women on the common Wheel—the Spindles may be increased to any number; the yarn may be spun to any size, and preserved with great exactness. This Machine has all the advantages of the Billy and Jenny; it spins from the roll, reduces the roll to roving for roping, and spins the roping by the application of a 21 carriage. To avoid individual expense a few families have joined in the purchase of a machine. Cotton may be spun to any fineness the texture will permit.

The subscriber has received from the patentee, an assignment of the full and exclusive right of making, using and vending to others the use of the above machine, in the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Ohio, Kentucky, N. and S. Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, and within the several following territorial governments subject or attached to the U. S. viz: Orleans, Indiana, Mississippi, Louisiana, Illinois and Michigan territories, and now offers for Sale, the patent right, for the above territories, either by state, county, or otherwise, as may be wished or best calculated to benefit the community.

The friends of domestic manufactures are invited to examine for themselves; the machines only need to be seen and understood to be approved. Those who wish to purchase Territorial rights, to make and vend the said Machines to others, can be supplied on reasonable terms (in the absence of the subscriber) by applying to Mr. T. V. Loofburrow, at Frankfort, Ky. and Benj. Hough, esq. Chillicothe, O. Machines will be furnished by Mr. Loofburrow, and Mr. S. Rankin, of Lexington, Ky. and by Mr. James Irwin, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

All persons are cautioned against using the said improvement without permission, within the above territories, as I will prosecute every offender. A liberal reward will be given to any person who will give me information of trespasses upon the patent, so that a conviction may be had.

STEPHEN ANDREWS.

Frankfort, Ky. Feb. 9, 1814. M27—3tq.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

JANUARY 31, 1814.

The joint Committee appointed to examine Mr. Stephen Andres' Spinning Machine in conformity to his Memorial, proceeded to examine the same, and find it constructed for spinning Wool and Cotton, and more simplified than any machine heretofore offered for public use; possessing the advantage of spinning Billy and Jenny now in use—it may be used as a Billy for roving and spinning warp or filling, or as a Jenny for spinning warp from Wool or Cotton, which change may be made in a few minutes. The Machine contains 12 Spindles, and may be worked as a Billy by a common Spinner with the aid of a Boy or Girl, from 8 or 10 years old, and as a Jenny without any aid whatever. It possesses such advantages for saving labor and expediting the Manufacture of Domestic Goods, that your committee recommends the same to the patronage of the good citizens of this commonwealth.

TO THE FRIENDS OF DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES.

THE SUBSCRIBER,

HAS received from Stephen Andres, Agent for the Patentee, the full and exclusive right of Making, using, and vending to others, the use of the "Domestic Roving and Spinning Machine," in Allegheny County, Pa. and likewise authorised to furnish machines, with single rights, to be transported into any of the counties, states or territories belonging to Stephen Andres, where he shall not have sold the right. The Machine will be made of good materials, the best of Steel Spindles, and finished in workman-like manner, with any number of Spindles from 12 to 50. The advantage of these Machines is superior to any before used, as one performs all the different kinds of work that is done on the two used in the Woolen Factories, and less liable to be put of repair. Those who wish to purchase, may see a machine, & learn the terms by applying to the subscriber, near the Round Church.

HAVE JUST RECEIVED A FRESH SUPPLY

OF

PAUL'S PATENT COLUMBIAN

OIL.

THIS valuable Medicine having been established upwards of three years, and its virtues sufficiently exemplified by the number of respectable certificates repeatedly laid before the public, it therefore now only becomes necessary for the information of those who may not have had an opportunity of perusing the certificates, to detail a few of the cases wherein the Oil has been so wonderfully efficacious. Printed handbills containing certificates, may be always had, gratis, from the Agents, who will keep a constant supply of the Oil.

The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious, and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz——Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any part of the body but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Tooth-ache, Spleen, Pleurisies, Cholic, Cramps, external and internal bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Croup and the Summer Complaint in Children, and in weak stomach, that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone, Whooping Cough and Mumps.

It seems as though nature ranked it the first of the class of all pectorals and expectorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarcely ever fails of removing obstruction in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisic and Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of walking fast, stoo[illegible] down are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeably to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion of the breast.

To the Public.—In order to prevent deception, the public are cautioned not to purchase any Oil that may be offered as "Paul's Patent Columbian Oil," that does not bear the true characteristics as published by my principal and sole agent Doctor John Love, of Baltimore.

THOMAS PAUL, Patentee.

WILLIAM PORTER

DOCTOR HANDY'S,

WORM DESTROYING

LOZENGES,

A safe and efficacious Medicine for destroying and bringing away

WORMS.

MAY be used with safety by children of any age, or as common physic by the most delicate constitution, in any climate, without restraint of diet, or the smallest danger from cold. It may be given with advantage after the small-pox or measles; or as a family medicine, in any case where physic is necessary. The most frequent seat of worms in the human body, is the intestinal tube; but occasionally they have been found in almost every other part of the body.

Some very extraordinary cases of Worms, of an unusual form and appearance, being brought away by these Lozenges, have been made public in England, where the rapid sale of the medicine has exceeded any thing of the kind ever known before; and has also proved, to a demonstration, its approved superiority, as an athelminthick, to the numerous puffed-up, useless nostrums, which are daily advertised in the newspapers.

A single dose of this valuable Medicine has often been known to remove half a pot-full of the Teres or Round Worms.

A few doses are generally sufficient to remove the Ascarides, a small white worm, the seat of which is either the stomach or rectum.

Even the Tape Worm, at all times the most difficult to destroy, may, by persevering in the frequent use of this medicine, be totally removed in the course of a few weeks.

To select cases, with the names of people who are not known here, and living at a great distance, would be useless, and take up too much of the reader's time. We shall therefore only observe, for the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the symptoms of worms, that they are known or suspected to exist by a pain in the stomach, attended with a sudden depression of spirits before eating; at other times, the belly is hard, painful and distended with wind—costiveness, head-ache, and trembling of the limbs, with a sense of something rising in the throat—pale complexion and emaciated body, with weakness and irregular appetite—convulsive, epileptic, or falling fits—pains in the back and side, and frequent itching of the nose, and sometimes of the anus. The above, and a long train of afflicting diseases may all be occasioned by worms, which are much oftener the cause of death than is commonly believed.

The above valuable Medicine is sold only by

J. P. & J. W. SKELTON,

at their wholesale and retail Drug Store, at the corner of Wood and Third Streets, Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, May 20, 1813.

Doctor CHISHOLM'S

Anti-Bilious Pills,

OF A QUALITY

Superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a

GENERAL MEDICINE,

IN THIS COUNTRY,

NOW prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates

This extraordinary medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuant of bile, is without example; never producing debility, or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child, or weakly female.

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excrutiating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains, wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flax-seed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and diseases of the liver, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills, taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case, the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing and great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold ONLY in Pittsburgh, by

BRIGHTON IRON WORKS

FOR SALE.

THIS elegant establishment consists of a Furnace, Forge, Grist and Saw Mill, together with extensive Coal, Store and Dwelling Houses, situate at the middle falls of Big Beaver creek, one mile from navigable water, 3 miles from the Ohio, 3 miles from the town of Beaver, and 28 miles from Pittsburgh. The Grist and Saw Mill are now usefully employed, and can be made very productive at a small expence. The Furnace and Forge are equal to any in the western country. The scite for water works comprises advantages equal if not superior to any on the Brandywine. The adjacent country abounds with ore, fuel and provisions, and the facility of transportation by water from the works to every part of the western country promises a sure and steady market for all its productions. The works are well supplied with first rate forge and furnace hands. The forge is now in operation, and the usual number of hands and teams are constantly employed in providing stock for a new blast, which it is intended shall take place about the 1st of March next, whether sold or not. The casting house is spacious and well supplied with flasks, patterns, and other requisite articles.—Possession can be given either before or after the first of March, as may be agreed upon, a fair price being given for the stock on hand.

ALSO FOR SALE.

A valuable Tract of Land on the east side of the creek, opposite the Iron Works, affording a scite for water works equal to any on the creek, on which is erected a Grist Mill and two Dwelling Houses, and a small Farm opened.—The whole of this property will be sold together or separate as may best suit the purchaser, and the terms made easy.
